RICHMOND, Feb. 15.—Intelligence just received from official quarters says a vigorous battle took place yesterday at Fort Donelson.

Eight Federal Gun Boats approached to within a few hundred yards of the Fort and opened a tremendous volley of shot and shell.

Two or three Gun boats were greatly damaged and the Federal loss must have been considerable. On the Confederate side none were killed, none wounded, nor any injury to guns or fort.

The Gun Boats were forced to retire.

Confederate victory complete, but it is probable the Federals will renew the attack to-day.

From Fort Donelson.

Received at Telegraph Office Feb. 15, at Bulletin Office, 6:35 p. m.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 14.—The enemy's Gun Boats opened fire on Fort Donelson at 3½, this afternoon.

Only ten foot of Water on Harpers Shoals, and the river falling rapidly. Our Pilots say the Gun Boats cannot pass over to-morrow.

A special dispatch to the Union & American, dated Fort Donelson, 14th, says six Gun Boats attacked the Fort this afternoon and a terrific fight lasted near two hours. Not a man or gun on our side was hurt. Two Federal Gun Boats were badly injured; a third crippled. All retired.

No demonstrations were made by the Infantry to-day. It is believed the enemy has received reinforcements. We expec it all around to-morrow.

Latest from the Fort.

Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 15 at Bulletin Office, 80:7 p. m.

NASHVILLE, Feby 15, 11½ o'clock a. m.—Dispatches received from Fort Donelson says fighting commenced at 7 this morning It was a terrible fight and raged all the morning.

Great slaughter on both sides.

The enemy was driven to the back part of his camps.

We have captured two of the enemy's Batteries.

A Federal prisoner taken says, McLearnard is commanding and has fifty thousand men.

Our troops are still driving the enemy back, with cold steel.

Another Battle.

Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 15, 1862. Received at Bulletin Office, 1:30 p. m.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 15.—McLean's cavalry fought the Lincolnites in Scott County yesterday, killing seven and capturing nineteen, with many horses.

The Lincolnites fled to the mountains in disorder. Forces equal. Three Confederates wounded.

The Federal loss at Fort Donelson on Thursday was five hundred. Ours twenty five.

Gen. Pillow commanded at the Fort; Floyd and Buckner the land forces. It was the most terrific contest since the war commenced.

COFFEE! COFFEE!

IS MANUFACTURED AT M. KELLY'S Southern Excelsior Coffee Mill, Raleigh, and is equal to the best coffee. It is made of coffee, rye and chickory, and is roasted in a cylinder by machinery, and therefore is better parched than can be done by hand. Chickory is not so well known in Dixie land, but in Europe they use it to give a superior flavor to the coffee. In Germany they call it sagoral, and here we call it dandalion. In England it is so highly appreciated that they lay a duty of two pounds ten shillings sterling per hundred weight to protect the growers of it. We annex Professor Emmons' certificate to show that there is no humbug, but it is what it is represented to be:

To MR. KELLY, Sir: I have tested and used the two samples of manufactured coffee—the labelled Java and Laguira. The first equals the Rio coffee of the shops, and seems to be equally good with that kind. * * * I am satisfied that they contain nothing which is injurious to the system, and may be economically and safely used as substitutes for coffee.

E. EMMONS.

This coffee is put up in pound papers, and packed in boxes containing thirty-six pounds, unless otherwise ordered.

All orders promptly attended to by addressing M. KELLY,

PROSPECTUS

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO

POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEARTT,

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to fill up our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence, and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

Edgecombe having long since been acknowledged as the model farming county of North Carolina, we feel that there is no locality better suited, and none more justly entitled, to the source of publication of a first class agricultural paper than Tarboro'. It is to be called

ELIZABETH CITY RETAKEN

Received at Telegraph Office Feb. 16, at Bulletin Office, 10:20 p. m.

RICHMOND, Feb. 16.—The latest information from Edenton, via Suffolk, is up to Thursday, when the Yankees had quiet possession, their Pickets extending 6 miles this way.

On Wednesday afternoon the Yankees ascended the Chowan, to Holly's wharf, eight miles from the mouth of the river, but finding nobody but a few negroes they raised a white flag and passed over to Cole Rains, on the opposite side of the river. What they did at Cole Rain is unknown. Col. Mitchell, militia commander in Chowan county was at Edenton when the Yankees arrived. He conversed with a Yankee captain and was assured that they did not intend to interfere with private property nor disturb the citizens not in arms.

When Col. Mitchell left Edenton, a few old cannon had been destroyed and some cotton had been removed to the gun boats. No other depredations.

The Yankees landed near the farm of Monroe Whedbee, in the vicinity of Elizabeth City, and robbed him of every thing.

The Militia force of Chowan county are removing all provisions from the river.

Refugees continue to reach Suffolk.—Rev. Mr. Amis, Mr. Hataway, and families, reached Suffolk last night. Only a dozen ladies are remaining at Edenton.

The Confederates took possession of Elizabeth City on Friday, when the Yankees fled to their gun boats. A few were taken prisoners by the Confederates. Our flag again waves over Elizabeth City.

Northern News.

Received at Telegraph Office Feb. 16, at Bulletin office, 11:15 p. m.

RICHMOND, Feb. 16.—Northern papers of the 13th have been received.

The New York Herald continues its extravagant jubilation over the affair at Roanoke Island. It says thirty killed in the army and twenty of the naval force; wounded, 140. Captured six forts, forty guns, over two thousand prisoners, and 3,000 small arms.

It says McClelland has received a dispatch that Price evacuated Springfield on Wednesday.

Lincoln has issued orders releasing all political prisoners in custody of military authorities in every quarter, on parole, to afford no aid to the enemies government—spies excepted.

Lincoln says as the rebellion is now manifestly on the decline, severe measures formerly resorted to, being no longer necessary.

Naval appropriation bill passed House with amendment appropriating $15,000,000 for additional gun boats; $1,000,000 for an Ordnance Foundry.

The Ariel has arrived from Aspinwall with $614,000 specie.

The news from Central America is important. Advices from Venezuela state that the country is in great commotion.

From Bowling Green.

The annexed, which we copy from the Memphis (Tenn.) Avalanche of the 13th instant is interesting, although we have already informed the public through our columns that Bowling Green has been evacuated:

By passengers who reached this city last evening on the Charleston railroad, we gather a number of reports and speculations, which we subjoin as follows:

An officer from Bowling Green, who left Bowling Green yesterday, brings confirmation of the probable evacuation of Bowling Green. He says that before he left the rumor was current that a portion of our force would shortly be moved to the interior. He said that our pickets had gone some distance beyond Green river, but could find no Federals.

Subsequently a report was brought in to the effect that the Federals, 70,000 strong, were trying to flank Gen. Johnston, and in consequence of this movement, it was considered that Bowling Green would be evacuated. It is proper to say that a gentleman who came from Bowling Green by the same train, stated that he had not heard of any such measures in contemplation. Nevertheless our informant states that wagons, loaded with tents, etc., had reached Nashville Tuesday, and they were understood to be from the vicinity of Bowling Green.

A gentleman who was in Clarksville, when the news came of the fall of Fort Henry, and who was turned back by the late "land slide" and the Federal occupancy of Danville, reports that Gen. Pillow is in the vicinity of Fort Donelson with a large force, and willing and anxious to give the enemy battle. There was considerable excitement at Clarksville, but the opinion was general that the Fort could be held against any force that could be brought against it.

A gentleman from Columbus yesterday, report that Generals Pillow and Floyd were anxious to go up to Paducah and cut off the Federal expedition, but for some cause they were not permitted. He also stated that the evacuation of Bowling Green was considered not improbable at Columbus.

A gentleman who was at Decatur last night, reports that it was stated there, and generally believed, that the Federals attached their telegraphic battries at Florence, and asked General Johnston to send re-inforcements; and that the General replied, "he could not send reinforcements, but would cut them off!" when the Federals took the hint, and retraced their steps.

A man, name not recolleeted, is reported to have pointed out to the Federals the Confederate stores at Florence; in return for which they made him a present of a lot of flour. He has been arrested at Florence, and will have an opportunity to answer for the offence.

The latest accounts from General Price place him eight miles this side of Springfield, with a large force. The Federals, 50,000 strong, are marching upon him from Lebanon, Rolla and Sedalia, and it is believed that stirring times will be had in that direction in a few days. It is not improbable that General Price will fall back to the Arkansas line.

A gentleman, just from Nashville, says there is considerable excitement in that city, and that on Monday and Tuesday a regiment of a thousand men was raised for home defence.

Gen. Beauregard is reported to be sick at Bowling Green.

Late From Tennessee River.

From the Memphis Avalanche.]

By the midnight train we have late advices from Paris and Tennessee river, to the following effect.

At Paris there is a large cavalry force, and the whole country is regularly scoured by scouts in the pay of Confederate farmers. There is still much excitement at Paris and throughout Henry county, and many families and slaveholders are moving off with their slaves. Several of the latter reached this city last night.

The last tidings from Tennessee river bridge are to the effect that the Federals have left that place almost entirely deserted. Three gunboats, with transports, are reported to have passed Tennessee river bridge yesterday morning, on the way up Tennessee river. It was supposed that they were fortifying at some point on the river, but at what precise point is unknown.

An Officer from Columbus reports that since the capture of Fort Henry, some two hundred ladies living in that vicinity have escaped to Columbus for protection.

There is a perfect reign of terror in the country in the vicinity of Fort Henry. The Federals have driven the men off from their houses, and offer all sorts of indignities to the defenseless women. The men are out hiding and are incapable of defending themselves or their families. Wherever a house is found vacant, it is immediately burnt, the presumption of the Federals being that it was occupied, by Secessionists. Some of the ladies living in that county, reached the city last night, with nothing but the clothes upon their persons, having been compelled to cross the river in a skiff. The Federals not only burn houses, but lay waste to all property that it suits their distinctive inclinations to prey upon.

At Milan depot, Corrill county, we learn a meeting was held last Saturday night, at which it is said, forty-two men agreed to take the oath of allegiance when it becomes necessary.

A number of negro-stealers and incendiaries have lately made their appearance in the Southern part of Tipton county.—They are mostly white men with Abolition sympathies, who formerly worked in that section, and who found it convenient to leave as soon as difficulties broke out between the North and South. They are accompanied by runaway negroes, are seldom seen in the day time, but hold converse at night with slaves, all of whom they wish to run off. They also made inquiries in reference to the number of soldiers gone into the service etc. The leader's name is Russell, a former overseer of Chas. Hoffler, Esq. The Southern men have been aroused, and are on the hunt for the miscreants, and we are pleased to learn with a fair prospect of capturing them.

An Irish woman, while drinking on the cars last night, was heard to cheer for Lincoln. At Brownsville, last night, she attempted to burn the cotton bales at the depot. She was brought to Memphis, and delivered to the police.

CHARLOTTE:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1862.

Awful Weather.

We have an awful time in Charlotte.—Heavy rains and much ice. The shrubbery and shade trees are breaking down in consequence of the weight of ice. But, our condition is not half so bad as that of our brave warriors upon the armed field. May God protect the Southern Soldier.

"The Greatest Calamity."

We were apologising yesterday to a special friend of ours for the small amount of matter published, by stating that one of our helps had broken his leg, another was suffering with Neuralgia, a third was afflicted with catarrhal, a fourth, (our pressman,) had gone home sick, and the fifth had gone to Winnsboro to take unto himself a wife, when he coolly replied—"the last case is the worst and most afflicting; it was the greatest calamity," and that he pitied his condition most."

Of course we do not concur with our friend, but we have given our excuse and you have learned why our columns are not well filled.

"A Wet Blanket."

The Richmond Dispatch disposes of the North Carolina Troops recently at Roanoke Island in the following cool style. The impression has been made by the Virginia papers that the fighting done at Roanoke, (as they claimed was the case at Bethel,) was by the F. F. V's. Of course, the "corn stalk boys" did nothing but surrender.

NORTH CAROLINIANS AT ROANOKE ISLAND.—In compliance with the request of a Raleigh correspondent, we have made inquiries concerning the North Carolina regiments on Roanoke Island. There were three incomplete regiments belonging to that State at the time of the fight, on the island, but not generally engaged. We are informed that a few of the men made their escape, but the majority were taken prisoners.

"A Day for Humiliation and Prayer."

The Charleston Courier, in view of our peculiar situation suggests that, as the 22d of February (instant,) will mark the ushering in of our new Government on its regular and permanent foundation, it will be the most appropriate season for public approach to Almighty God.

We agree with the Courier that there cannot be a more fitting use made of the 22d than to dedicate it to a general prostration before Him, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree judgment, and to beseech Him, that "He would take our cause into his own hand," and "judge between us and our enemies"—that He would inspire our Rulers with singleness of heart, our Counsellors with an excellent judgment, and our whole people with a firm resolve to do and to suffer, to endure and perform, whatsoever in His wise Providence he shall appoint unto us, and cause us to feel throughout, His own hands guiding us, and to hear his voice, saying to us—"This is the way, walk ye therein?"

Will our city authorities take this subject under consideration.

The Virginia Press.

We venture the opinion that there are at least ten thousand dollars annually contributed by the people of North Carolina, residing on, or contiguous to, the several Rail Roads passing through the State, in order, as they suppose, to obtain the latest news, but, as far as we have been able to learn, they almost invariably have anticipated through the columns of the BULLETIN, even up to the Capitol of our State.

This sum would, if contributed with other patronage, sustain a first class daily at Raleigh and if, instead of being sent abroad, placed at our disposal in like manner,—by subscription patronage—enable us to secure some of the best talent in conducting the paper, which we would enlarge and make one of the very best Southern papers, in every respect.

What do the patrons of the Virginia press receive in return for the money sent out of the State to the injury of their own papers. If they wish to learn read the annexed extracts:

From the Raleigh State Journal.]

The Virginia papers seem to think that nobody but Virginians fought or fell at Roanoke Island. It is painful to witness the heartless selfishness which they have manifested in relation to the North Carolinians who shared the graves and the glory, and the mortifying defeat of that disastrous day. We have searched the columns of our Virginia exchanges in vain for the name of a North Carolinian, who either fell a corpse or a captive in that unequal struggle. We are mortified at the disappointment, and think the circulation of Virginia papers in North Carolina, would have justified us in expecting, and our people in receiving a more feeling consideration.

But North Carolina was largely represented in the small devoted army of that doomed field. The 8th State Troops, Col. H. M. Shaw, the 31st N. C. Troops Col. John V. Jordan, and a battalion unknown to us—two regiments and a battalion of North Carolinians fought and fell side by side with Virginians, but the Virginia papers had not learned the fact.

From the Raleigh Standard.]

VIRGINIA INGRATITUDE.—No State in the Confederacy has done more than North Carolina to defend and aid Virginia in this crisis. Her first and best equipped forces were sent to that State in thousands—her arms were liberally divided with that State, and what do we get in return? About 500 Virginians, brave, noble men, of the Wise Legion, went to the assistance of our troops on Roanoke Island. We rejoice at the daring bravery they exhibited, and our people appreciate them. But at first, the Virginia press, as it did in the battle of Bethel, kept from public view the fact that there were any North Carolinians in the battle on Roanoke Island.

Now, a correspondent of the Richmond Examiner from Norfolk, shamelessly casts reproach upon the 31st North Carolina regiment in that affair, and intimates that it acted cowardly. We repel the insinuation as a base libel, and Virginians ought to hide their faces with shame to give circulation to such statements."

A correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch also reflects upon Col. Shaw, stating that a Col. Anderson, of course a Virginian, wanted Col. Shaw to keep up the fight after they were nearly surrounded by five times their number, and that he sat down and cried about it, when he refused.

Lieut. Bryant tells us that he heard various slanderous rumors on his arrival at Portsmouth, reflecting upon Col. Shaw and his regiment, and that he branded them as false on the spot. But what if these charges were true, which we do not believe, is it becoming in Virginians to treat us thus under such circumstances? Such conduct North Carolina has borne too long from Virginia. The "Bethell" battle they claimed all the credit of, until they were forced to admit that Gen. Hill and his North Carolina troops won the day.

Such conduct, if continued, will cause North Carolinians to cease reading Virginia papers."

If the subscribers in Western North Carolina were to throw the patronage they are now distributing abroad, in our establishment, we could make arrangements promptly to supply them with as much reading matter, earlier information and first class contributions than we have heretofore been able to furnish them.

The people are beginning to learn what is their interest. The large accessions to our subscription lists encourage us to believe that at no very distant day we will be prepared to do all if not more than we have promised. Build up your own papers and then they will be enabled to improve and take position in the first rank of Southern publications. Supply the means and the BULLETIN shall come up to your expectations.

The Capture of Fort Henry.

The Nashville "Union & American" says the garrison of the Fort consisted of 3,000 men—the main body of whom arrived safely at Fort Donalson at 11 o'clock Thursday night; that Gen. Tilghman, Maj. Gilmer, Capt. Miller and 80 other officers and men remained behind within the Fort, to cover the retreat of our men, and were forced to surrender.

The Tennessee River was very high—almost ready to inundate the fort, enabling the enemy's gunboats to take position completely commanding it. They could thus ram their shells into it, making it a slaughter-pen.

After the Fort had been taken, the enemy proceeded on up the River into Tennessee to Danville—some 20 miles—and destroyed the magnificent railroad bridge of the Memphis & Louisville Road, in less than four hours after. This—though not entirely destroying communications between Bowling Green and Columbus—cuts it off directly; and communication between points now can be had only by the round about way from Bowling Green via Nashville, thence by the Nashville & Decatur, the Memphis & Charleston, and the Mobile & Ohio Railroad.

We learn that Gen. GIDEON J. PILLOW has been promoted to the rank of Major General. His many friends will be much gratified with this additional mark of the confidence and appreciation of the General. PILLOW is now at Fort Donelson, where, it is probable, he will soon have an opportunity to distinguish himself again.

MILITARY ORDER.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT N. C.,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Raleigh, February 13th, 1862.

They will be received by Companies or individuals, and when a full Company is tendered, four officers will be commissioned; with a less number appointments will be given as follows: A Captain for forty men; First Lieutenant for twenty-five men; Second Lieutenant for fifteen.

The Militia who have been ordered on duty, and to be in readiness, can still avail themselves of this opportunity of getting into the volunteer service, and the number so doing will be credited to their respective counties.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!

MR. EDITOR:—In the face of the troubles that environ our beloved State—now that the enemy has invaded our borders, I wish to raise a company of gentlemen of grit, for the War. Who among the many that are fattening off the misfortunes that surround us, will come forward to join? Skulks and land pirates I don't expect to Volunteer—(they will be settled with hereafter,) but the true patriot, whether he is high or low, rich or poor, will cheerfully respond, now that a necessity appeals, I have no doubt.

I don't want to be Captain, or hold any office in said Company, but I want you fellow citizens, to come forward and wipe out the taunt that, North Carolina is a "strip of land between two States." S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 20th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSES OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, whether the goods are free or not. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.
